Dear Parent/Carer

RE: Last day of term.

We are approaching the time of year when thoughts turn to Christmas. It has been a long and challenging term, but a very rewarding one with a wealth of student successes which we have reported to you in newsletters, on the internet, by twitter and email. Perhaps most notable was our successful Ofsted inspection in November. I hope you have managed to read the report we emailed to parents. It is also available to view on our website.

As has become the norm here at Kingswood there will be a Christmas panto on the last day of term, Thursday 20 December. The panto, as you are probably aware, is written and performed by members of Academy staff and is a lovely light hearted look at the year where the students can enjoy watching the staff poke fun at themselves!

All students will watch the panto during periods 3 or 4 and will then be able to leave at 1:30pm. All Academy transport will run as normal at this slightly earlier time. Students in receipt of free school meals will have access to hot and cold food between 11:10am – 11:30am.

This will be a full 'mufti' day and we shall be holding a Christmas jumper competition with staff and students. For £1 staff and students can wear non-uniform clothing. For those who choose to wear a Christmas jumper the Heads of Year will judge which is the best one in their year group, in terms of being festive and fun, and award a prize accordingly. It isn't compulsory and all mufti money raised will support Student Council initiatives and nominated charities.

If I do not get the opportunity to see you before the break may I wish you a very Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

Yours faithfully

Mr A Burton
