

THE '100' WORD CHALLENGE

Sadly, our National Hero – Captain Sir Tom Moore, passed on peacefully on the 2nd of February 2021. He is well remembered as a courageous army veteran but most importantly, last year, for the fact that he walked 100 lengths of his garden to raise money for the NHS. He inspired everyone in the community and raised £39 million for the NHS, ensuring that people all over the UK were assisted from the money that he raised. He is a National Hero indeed! On the 30th of April 2020, Captain Sir Tom Moore celebrated his 100th birthday. In his honour of being a National Hero, I wanted to set a 100-word creative writing challenge story entitled: My Inspiration. This could be on anything. Someone that has inspired you. Something that has inspired you. A book perhaps that has inspired you. A species of animal that has inspired you. An act of 'something' that has inspired you. Anything at all – but it has to be creative and inspirational! There will be a prize in it for the best story!

Extra-terrestrial	Matter...?	Blood-thirsty	nightmares?	Or	a	concealed	reality,	lurking,	silently murdering,	cloaked	with	the	faux	lies	of	science?	A	step or	two	and	incandescence	becomes	cataclysmic	darkness;	existence	becomes	expiration or	so	we	are	thought	to	believe?	For	centuries	black holes	have	been	correlated	to	the	electromagnetic	doomed	fate	of us	all;	where	gravity	becomes	invincible:	a	reticent	assassin,	stealthy, devouring,	pitiless	mutant.	A	conundrum	too	astronomical	for	the	feeble brain	capacity	of	hominids	to	even	begin	to	process	let alone	retain	simplistic	comprehension.	Jaws	lined	with	the	deceased	cadavers of	victims	smoked	with	bloody	execution.	Can	these	be	lies?
