

THE '100' WORD CHALLENGE

Sadly, our National Hero – Captain Sir Tom Moore, passed on peacefully on the 2nd of February 2021. He is well remembered as a courageous army veteran but most importantly, last year, for the fact that he walked 100 lengths of his garden to raise money for the NHS. He inspired everyone in the community and raised £39 million for the NHS, ensuring that people all over the UK were assisted from the money that he raised. He is a National Hero indeed! On the 30th of April 2020, Captain Sir Tom Moore celebrated his 100th birthday. In his honour of being a National Hero, I wanted to set a 100-word creative writing challenge story entitled: My Inspiration. This could be on anything. Someone that has inspired you. Something that has inspired you. A book perhaps that has inspired you. A species of animal that has inspired you. An act of 'something' that has inspired you. Anything at all – but it has to be creative and inspirational! There will be a prize in it for the best story!

My	Inspiration	(without	trying	to	be	cliché)	is	my	Dad.
With	my	Mum	being	disabled,	and	not	helping	her	cause
too	much,	means	there	is	extra	stress	on	my	Dad.
He	helps	my	Mum	all	throughout	the	Day,	cooks	dinner almost	every	night,	and	works	a	full	time	shift,	which has	very	awkward	hours.	I	am	left	in	the	house in	the	evenings	to	care	for	my	Mum,	as	a young	Carer.	However,	my	Dad	has	been	able	to	do this	for	many	years.	This	is	what	helps	me	through all	the	times	and	is	my	major	inspiration	for	life.
