

THE '100' WORD CHALLENGE

Sadly, our National Hero – Captain Sir Tom Moore, passed on peacefully on the 2nd of February 2021. He is well remembered as a courageous army veteran but most importantly, last year, for the fact that he walked 100 lengths of his garden to raise money for the NHS. He inspired everyone in the community and raised £39 million for the NHS, ensuring that people all over the UK were assisted from the money that he raised. He is a National Hero indeed! On the 30th of April 2020, Captain Sir Tom Moore celebrated his 100th birthday. In his honour of being a National Hero, I wanted to set a 100-word creative writing challenge story entitled: My Inspiration. This could be on anything. Someone that has inspired you. Something that has inspired you. A book perhaps that has inspired you. A species of animal that has inspired you. An act of 'something' that has inspired you. Anything at all – but it has to be creative and inspirational! There will be a prize in it for the best story!

From	quite	a	young	age	I've	been	inspired	by	too many	books	to	be	able	to	choose	just	one.	I've always	loved	the	fact	that	when	you	want	to	forget the	world	for	a	minute,	you	can	lose	yourself	in a	good	book.	There	are	so	many	different	books	you can	read,	and	I've	always	been	fascinated	by	the	way something	as	simple	as	words	on	a	page	can	provoke so	many	emotions.	Even	more	inspirational	than	the	books,	are the	authors	that	write	them	as	they	manage	to	create such	inspirational	stories	that	grasp	your	attention,	from	their	imagination
