

Literature Exam

How is Nature shown to be powerful in 'Wind' and one other poem from 'Place'?

Introduction

- ▶ In the poem 'Wind' nature is shown to be violent and destructive and people are powerless to stop the destruction that nature brings. In the same way nature is also portrayed as uncontrollable in the poem 'Storm in the Black Forest' .

- ▶ The poem 'Wind' is about
- ▶ Whereas the other poem 'Storm in the Black forest' is about.....

- The storm in the poem 'Wind' is violent and destructive.

In the poem 'Storm in the Black Forest' nature is not depicted as destructive but amazing.

- Nature seems to be really powerful in the poem 'Wind'.

- Nature is also shown to be powerful in 'Storm in the Black Forest'.

- The people in the first poem are powerless to control the wind.

- People are also shown to be powerless in the other poem.

