Live chat – Let's talk about adult social care! 8 July 2022, 10-11am

Adult social care covers a wide range of activities to help people who are older or living with disability or physical or mental illness live independently and stay well and safe.

Adult social care includes a diverse range of services aiming to help people maintain their independence. The careers pathways available include care and support work, registered professions (Social Worker, Nurse or Nursing Associate, Occupational Therapist), managerial and leadership positions, as well as opportunities across several administrative areas.

Chat series will cover:

- What is adult social care?
- What career progression is available?
- Career journey
- The best bits and challenging parts of the role
- The grades and experience needed
- Time for Q&A
