

Kingswood Secondary Academy – Careers entitlement

Year group	Academic curriculum	PSHE curriculum (see learning journeys)		External offer
7	Subjects across the curriculum have identified parts of their courses where there is a link with Aspiration and Careers i.e., jobs that fit with a subject e.g., an Archivist with History or a Fitness Instructor with PE and the Core Competencies (see below)	Who am I? Skills and talents Likes and Dislikes What is a career? Work-life balance Core competencies Digital communication	Creativity Character Wellbeing Aspiration Careers and the climate Apprenticeships	Access to the Academy careers fair (January)
8	Subjects across the curriculum have identified parts of their courses where there is a link with Aspiration and Careers i.e., jobs that fit with a subject e.g., an Archivist with History or a Fitness Instructor with PE and the Core Competencies (see below)	Work sectors Careers and the future Teamwork Challenges and rewards of work STEM 1 STEM 2	Resilience What does success mean to me? Problem solving Organisation Taking control of your career journey Jobs and pay	Access to the Academy careers fair (January)
9	Subjects across the curriculum have identified parts of their courses where there is a link with Aspiration and Careers i.e., jobs that fit with a subject e.g., an Archivist with History or a Fitness Instructor with PE and the Core Competencies (see below)	Making choices Problem solving Communication Working and earning: managing your money Labour market Teamwork	Apprenticeships 6 th form college T Levels and BTEC Traineeships University Being an entrepreneur	Work with the Talent Foundry to consider aspirations, skills and develop Core Competencies Visit to a local university (STEAM event)* Access to the Academy careers fair (January)
10	Subjects across the curriculum have identified parts of their courses where there is a link with Aspiration and Careers i.e., jobs that fit with a subject e.g., an Archivist with History or a Fitness Instructor with PE and the Core Competencies (see below)	Reflecting on my career journey Is AI a threat to jobs? Employer profiles In person, hybrid and remote – what works best?	Money talks: Apprenticeships and higher education What type of career is best for me? After school – learning pathways Researching volunteering around the world Wellbeing in the workplace	Assemblies with local colleges and apprenticeship providers  Work with the Talent Foundry to consider aspirations, skills and develop Core Competencies Access to the Academy careers fair (January)
11	Subjects across the curriculum have identified parts of their courses where there is a link with Aspiration and Careers i.e., jobs that fit with a subject e.g., an Archivist with History or a Fitness Instructor with PE and the Core Competencies (see below)	Employability skills Post-16 choices Are A Levels right for me?	Decision – making: Key Stage 5 study Exploring universities around the world	1:1 meetings with Ian Doherty, careers advisor (Shaw Trust) Access to the Academy careers fair (January)
Core Competencies	Communication	Creativity	Organisation	Digital literacy
	Problem solving	Resilience	Teamwork	Initiative
*	Activity is subject to change – to the venue / providers			Activity is subject to change – provider key events / staff availability